

1 What can you say?

Work with a partner and think of nice replies to these comments that you hear at a party:

1. Hey, you're not from around here, you have a different accent.
2. Are you having fun?
3. You're an exchange student from Europe? So how do you like living in America for a year?
4. I'm new here and don't know many people.
5. Germans have really strange clothes. When I was in Munich I saw lots of men with funny little mountain hats.

2 If-sentences

Complete these if-sentences with the correct verb forms.

1. If you _____ (to look) after my camera, you wouldn't have broken it!
2. If you give me the chance, I _____ (to tell) you what happened.
3. If you _____ (to not shout) at me, I won't shout at you.
4. If you _____ (to know) the facts, you wouldn't be so angry with me.
5. If you had explained right away, I _____ (to not go) so crazy.
6. If I had the money, I _____ (to buy) you a new camera.

3 Sentences with 'would'

Grandpa Patterson and the kids are talking about what they would do if they were alone at home and heard a strange noise upstairs. Look at the pictures and write down what the people say.

1. Amy: I would _____
2. Jake: _____
3. Mel: _____
4. Grandpa: _____