Activity 2: Internet research – Black Lives Matter (Texts, p. 58, ex. 2)

1 Before the Black Lives Matter movement there was the Black Panther Party for Self Defense, a political organization which was created in the 1960s to monitor and challenge police interaction with black people in Oakland, California. Compare and contrast the Black Lives Matter movement with the Black Panther Party.

Collect information about:
- why the groups were created
- how the groups used visual images or tactics to help their cause
- what the groups could have learned from each other

2 Choose one visual element from either the Black Panther Party or the Black Lives Matter movement. Note down your information in key words in order to present a visual analysis in class.
