Vocabulary revision

1 Adjective and noun collocations

a) Match words from each box to make collocations which would make sense in the sentences below. Be careful: There are more words than you need!

Adjectives:
strong | fair | scientific | bad | objective | healthy | great | major | positive | endless | irrelevant | fantastic

Nouns:
cycle | details | fall | journalist | criticism | rise | genes | evidence | balance | earthquake | outcome | performance

1. An _____ would never use emotional language to report the news.

2. A: You always seem so happy. What's your secret?

   B: It's just a _____ of work and free time activities, that's all.

3. Everyone in their family is so attractive! They really have _____ .

4. Everyone is sure there's going to be a _____ to the peace talks, but I'm not so sure. The two countries don't seem very peaceful at the moment.

5. A: Did you see? There's been a _____ in the value of the dollar.

   B: So is that good for bad for our vacation?

6. Sorry, but this summary is full of _____ that nobody wants to read.

7. A: The results of that study are shocking! It can't be true!

   B: But all the _____ points to those results.

8. It was such a _____ that she couldn't get up to finish the race.

b) Now use the words you didn't need in a) to make collocations. Then, make sentences with those collocations. Write in your exercise book.

2 Synonyms

What synonyms can you think of for the words below? Sometimes there's more than one possibility.

1. irrelevant _____
2. to point to _____
3. outcome _____
4. currently _____
5. objective _____
6. well-known _____
7. plenty of _____
8. to rise _____

Autor: Michael Mattison