

11 COMPREHENSION Outline Joey's plan B and his reasons for thinking about it.

12 ANALYSIS Compare the attitudes of Joey and Omz to the neighbourhood they grew up in. → S7

13 EVALUATION Comment on the importance of 'interacting' with your neighbourhood referring to Omz statement. → 8

“

Whatever man, if people gave back to Reedbury in the first place, then they wouldn't be renewing it. But nobody put P back in the endz, nobody took care of it, so it's getting patterned now. (ll. 37–39)

”

14 CREATIVE TASK Ten years later Joey and Omz meet again on 'Red Pitch' and remember their argument about giving money back to their neighbourhood. Write their dialogue in which they talk about their argument back then and whether their attitude has changed. Take into consideration how their life might have turned out, how they might live now, what they might do for work etc. How would this context shape their opinions and attitudes? → S18.1 → 10

A3 15 LISTENING Aida Edemariam visited Battle Library in West Reading and wrote a report about her experiences there. Listen to her report and note down the services which libraries in the UK offer and why they are important for a community. → S21

16 VISUALS → S27.1

- Describe the photo, including details about urban development.
- Analyse the possible intention of the photographer when taking the photo.
- Discuss the need and possible disadvantages of renewing old buildings in a neighbourhood.

